In the 1940s, Adam the Gardener was a national treasure. Each week in the Sunday Express, he advised gardeners exactly what to plant and how - from carrots in the last week of May (but 'do this after sunset, when there is less chance of trouble from the carrot fly') to lily-of-the-valley in the final week of November. Accompanied by wonderful illustrations, Adam's charm and expertise won over ...

Adam was, therefore, supposed to “cultivate” and “guard” the garden. But is garden life really just a world of flowers and fruit trees, and is Adam’s God-inspired work that of a simple gardener—cultivating the plants all while guarding the land from potential threat? Not at all. Ultimately, the garden is God’s kingdom on earth:
