In The Sanctuary Of Women

Sanctuary of Women is a website created as a companion to Jan Richardson's book In the Sanctuary of Women: A Companion for Reflection & Prayer. Although the site is intertwined with the book, it offers a space of its own. This site is an invitation, a doorway, a threshold into reflection and contemplation, conversation and prayer.

Sanctuary of Women

Each chapter becomes its own sanctuary, gracing and engaging the reader with the reflections, stories, poetry, prayers, and blessings that Richardson offers. An invitation into reflection and prayer alone or in the company of others, In the Sanctuary of Women is a book to treasure and to share with the women and the men in your life.

The Name. The reason for calling it for "The Court of the Women" was that, although it served both men and women equally, during the Simchat Beit Hashoeva (Water Drawing Festival) special balconies were installed for the women to stand upon. The gemara in Tractate Sukkah states that. "Initially, women would stand on the inside of the Court of the Women, closer to the Sanctuary to the west, and ...
