The Drowned Life - HarperCollins

Every Monday, I'll be doing spoiler-free, bite-sized book/magazine reviews. Jeffrey Ford's The Drowned Life is as engrossing as his previous short story collections, immediately ensnaring the reader with his detailed prose and characterization. One noticeable trend is that while Ford dabbles in clear-cut fantasy with stories such as "The Manticore Spell" or "The Dismantled Invention of Fate ...

Book/Magazine Review: The Drowned Life by Jeffrey Ford

The Drowned Life is Jeffrey Ford's third short story collection and it may be his best yet. The title story that kicks things off is nothing short of a minor miracle, a surrealistic adventure that's equally heartbreaking, harrowing, and funny. And I mean honestly, laugh out loud three or four times, funny.
