The Listerdale Mystery. The Listerdale Mystery, published in 1934, is the title of a collection of twelve short stories by Agatha Christie, which are for the most part lighthearted adventures, but with a few rather more sinister tales as well. There is only one actual whodunit so this is not typical Christie fare but she does keep us guessing as to what is going to happen in the more serious stories and as for the others, we just go with the flow.
