First and foremost it is a radical thing, the most revolutionary thing to appear among men. The cross of Jesus Christ means death, to all who honestly come to it, death to the self-life that they have been living, and new life in and through Jesus Christ. All self-rights and self-rule are to be left behind the moment they

The radical message of the cross transformed Saul of Tarsus and changed him from a persecutor of Christians to a tender believer and an apostle of the faith. Its power changed bad men into good ones. It shook off the long bondage of paganism and altered completely the whole moral and mental outlook of the Western world.
